ROBBERY AT PELHAM.

Between Six and Eight Hundred Dollars Stolen.

Special to the Telegram.
Reidsville, Aug. 17.—Robbers entered the store of J. O. Fitzgerald at Pelham last night and secured between six and eight hundred dollars in cash and a silver watch. They first entered Mr. Fitzgerald's residence by opening a window blind and secured his trousers in which were all his keys. Taking trousers and all they went to the store and with the keys unlocked the door and safe. The safe has an old fashioned lock, which opens with a key. They also took from the safe seventy-five dollars worth of stamps, but these were left in the store.

Mr. Fitzgerald thinks he was chloroformed when the robbers entered his room, as he is usually very easily awakened.

The robbers left no clue by which they can be traced.

Mr. Fitzgerald offers seventy-five dollars reward for the recovery of the goods.

Death of Mrs. John Lambeth.

Special to the Telegram.
Reidsville, Aug. 17.—Mrs. Jno. Lambeth, nee Miss Leslie Williamson, wife of City Tax Collector Lambeth, died here this morning after undergoing a surgical operation.

Mrs. Lambeth was about 22 years of age and had been a citizen of Reidsville about two years. She was a most estimable lady and numbered among her most intimate friends a large number of our best people.

Her death is a peculiarly sad one and has cast a shadow of gloom over the whole city. The bereft husband has the sincere sympathy of many friends.

Old Ridge Township.

OAK RIDGE, N. C., Aug. 15, 1898.
Editor Telegram: The primary at Oak Ridge township was held last Saturday at Stokesdale and Monday night at Oak Ridge. Prof. T. E. Whitaker was selected as chairman of the executive committee, and A. S. Clark recommended for the position of registrar. The following members were appointed on the executive committee: W. F. Linville, J. H. Clark, N. M. Gordon, S. A. Lowrey, C. R. Benbow, M. H. Holt, John Cottrell and W. O. Donnell. Captain R. S. Williams, Charles Case, Esq., and Dr. C. W. Taylor were nominated for magistrates. Walter Jones was nominated as constable.

All delegates in good standing were made delegates to the county convention.

Ex-Sheriff J. H. Gilmer was the choice for sheriff.
J. J. Nelson was the general favorite for clerk of the court, though J. L. King had some following.

Of course A. G. Kirkmau was the unanimous choice for register of deeds.

For treasurer there seemed to be some division of sentiment between Starr Higgin and Mr. Doggett.

Hon. J. C. Bunch and J. C. Kennett will satisfy us on the legislative ticket.

As to the senate, there seemed to be a disposition to follow wherever the city of Greensboro should lead. Many think, however, that Mr. J. C. Kennett should have the nomination for the Senate.

May Be Suicide.

William Henderson, colored, who lives on Mr. C. B. Bell's place in Sharon, tried to commit suicide last Monday afternoon by shooting himself. Friends interfered, and he was prevented from taking his life in that way. The negro finally succeeded in breaking away from those who were trying to quiet him and ran out of the house and into a deep gulley near by. The fall into the gulley, it is thought, will prove fatal, as the negro has sustained internal injuries. Henderson has been regarded as a good negro. His mind is said to be affected.—Charlotte Observer.

A Significant Lesson.

Manzanillo was bombarded on the last day of the war, but there wasn't time, it appears, for the ships to kill a mule; so the town goes scot free after all. The demonstration in this conflict of the practical uselessness of bombardment of coast defenses by a naval force is one of the most valuable and significant lessons inculcated in modern military experience.—Philadelphia Record.

YELLOW FEVER AT MONTAUK.

Nine New Cases Aboard the St. Louis

AS TO QUARANTINE REGULATIONS

Direct Traffic Re-established Between New York and Havana.—The Dissatisfied Cuban Element.

By Cable THE TELEGRAM.

Montauk, Aug. 17.—The number of suspected yellow fever cases in detention at the hospitals has increased from twenty-seven to thirty-six by the discovery of nine new cases aboard the St. Louis. The camp physicians consider the discovery of the new cases as having a serious aspect. The camp has not been quarantined as yet.

Last night the following notice was posted: "Orders received to quarantine the camp, but General Young says the order is not effective."

It is the opinion of the army officers that the camp should be quarantined should fever appear but the right of the state officers to force any sort of regulations upon what is practically a government reservation is pointedly disputed by the officers. Gen. Young alone can act in the matter. There is some fear of the civil military authorities.

DIRECT TRAFFIC RE-ESTABLISHED.

New York, Aug. 17.—The steamships Lydia and Matanzas, both of the Ward line, will leave this afternoon for Havana, carrying mail and passengers and a large cargo.

These are the first vessels to re-establish direct traffic between the principal points of the United States and Cuba, which was interrupted by the declaration of the blockade, on the 7th of April.

THE DISSATISFIED ELEMENT.

Santiago, Aug. 17.—Gens. Wood and Lawton have sent word to the Cubans at Cabre, Bayamo, and also to Camp Castillo that any attempt on the part of the Cubans to enter the city of Santiago with arms will be prevented by the Americans.

The Cubans have been further informed that they might assist in the restoration of prosperity to the island by returning home and aiding the United States in establishing order. The Cubans sent back word that they were trying to check the threatened outbreak among the Cubans, but that the dissatisfied element is very strong.

REPORT BEING DECIPHERED.

Washington, Aug. 17.—The navy departing this morning received a report from Admiral Dewey on the fall of Manila. The report is now being deciphered.

CERVERA IN NEW YORK.

New York, Aug. 17.—Admiral Cervera arrived in the city this morning on his way to Annapolis and met with an enthusiastic reception.

Better Than Walking.

When Captain Staggs' train pulled in at the freight depot this morning, a negro tramp crawled out from under the baggage car and walked up the track. He had been riding the rods and was literally covered with dust. Captain Staggs hailed him and said: "You do not look like you rode in one of my passenger coaches?"

"No, sir, I didn't. I'll tell you, captain, I have the rheumatism and can't walk much, and for that reason I thought I would take jes' a little ride on your train, as I wanted to get home and get the services of a physician."

The captain had a good laugh, and the negro hobbled out of sight.—Winston Journal.

The evidence of a French physician, founded on experience obtained at a Soudanese village exhibited in Paris, was to the effect that the negro baby comes into the world a pale pink color, the second day it is a lilac, ten days afterward it is of the color of tanned leather, and at fifteen days it is chocolate colored.—The Lancet.

Shafter's Report.

Washington, Aug. 16.—General Shafter's despatch to the war department, concerning the health conditions of his troops at Santiago, reports the death of eighteen men; covering a period of 8 days. The following is the sanitary report for August 14th: Total number sick, 1,729; total number fever cases, 1,397; total number new cases, 130; total number fever cases returned to duty, 163.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Walker gave a reception last night complimentary to the visiting young ladies in the city. We regret that lack of space prevents us from giving a detailed account of the many amusements and the names of the ladies and gentlemen present, but will say it was a very brilliant social event.

THE COTTON GROWERS.

Meeting of the National Association Memphis.

Memphis, Aug. 16.—The Cotton Growers' association met here today. The association was called to order by H. B. Greer, vice president for Tennessee.

It was suggested that each vice president at the meeting address the association and state whether he thought the association should continue its organization. Each of the vice presidents favored the continuation of the organization, but on a different line. They had all agreed that the association had done much good, but had not done or accomplished as much as it should.

The speakers favored, above all other things, the diversification of the crops. Reduction of acreage, which has hitherto been the shibboleth of the association, was put aside, and made secondary to crop diversification. It was argued that reduction of acreage would naturally follow diversification.

Under the new order of things the association will become an active working body. All present agreed that meetings where resolutions were passed meant little of practical good and it was decided to reach and educate the farmers by the distribution of literature and the formation of a society similar to the grange and alliance, but absolutely free from politics, which was the rock on which the other organizations foundered.

The association, after this discussion, entered on the election of a president to succeed the late Hector D. Lane. E. S. Peters, of Texas and F. L. Maxwell, of Louisiana, were nominated for the presidency. Only the vice presidents and secretary voted and Mr. Peters received five votes and Mr. Peters three. On motion of Mr. Bryne, of Texas, the election of Mr. Maxwell was made unanimous.

REPORT ON MANILA'S FALL.

Seven Thousand Spanish Prisoners Were Taken.

ALLOWED THE HONORS OF WAR.

General Augusti Obeyed Orders from His Government—Jaudenes to Be Court-Martialed.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, August 17.—The following despatch was received by the navy department this morning:

"Manila, August 13.—The city of Manila surrendered today to the land and naval forces of the United States after a combined attack. A division of the squadron shelled the forts and entered the channel at Malate on the south of the city driving back the enemy, while our army was advancing on that side at the same time.

"The city surrendered about 5 o'clock in the afternoon and the American flag was hoisted by Lieutenant Bruntley. About seven thousand prisoners of war were taken. The squadron had no casualties. On the seventh instant General Merritt and myself formally demanded the surrender of the city which the Spaniards refused. (Signed) Dewey."

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

Manila, Aug. 13, via Hong Kong.—The city of Manila surrendered today. Four American ships bombarded Malate for hours and fired hundreds of shots, after which our flag, the stars and stripes, were raised over the Philippines. The Spanish surrendered seven thousand men and twelve thousand stands of arms, together with an immense amount of ammunition. The Spaniards were allowed the honors of war.

THE INSURGENTS MUTINED.

Hong Kong, Aug. 17.—A rumor is current here that the United States troops in the Philippines have had trouble with the rebel forces under General Aguinaldo and, according to the accounts, the insurgents upon whom restrictions have been placed by General Merritt, mutinied at not being permitted to share in the surrender of the city. It is reported that they have attacked the American troops in the trenches.

AUGUSTI OBEYED ORDERS.

Madrid, Aug. 17.—It is officially stated that Augusti obeyed the orders of the government in devolving the command at Manila upon General Jaudenes. The latter will be tried by court martial for surrendering without making a greater resistance.

BLANCO MUST REMAIN.

He and All Other Generals Must Stay at Their Posts.

Madrid, Aug. 16—5:30 p. m.—The cabinet has decided to order General Blanco and all other Spanish Generals in the Antilles to remain at their respective posts until the evacuation is completed.

General Wesley Merritt, it is reported here, took the greatest precaution in order to prevent the insurgents from interfering with the capitulation of Manila or approaching the city.

The Madrid press fears that the surrender may affect Spain's position in the negotiations for the future government of the Philippines.

Thinks the Crisis Still Exists.

London, Aug. 17.—The papers this morning comment upon the unheroic and theatrical figures cut by Governors General Augusti and Blanco. The Daily News congratulates Admiral Dewey upon the humanity he displayed.

The Daily Chronicle says the action of the German commander in removing Governor General Augusti is likely to increase the tension between Germany and America.

It is evident from the order given to the Kynoch Company, of Birmingham, for a large number of military cartridges, that although the war is over, the crisis still exists.

An Account Through London.

London, Aug. 17.—The Manila correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, telegraphing on last Saturday, says: "Nothing could possibly be more humane than the Americans' capture of the town. The plan of General Merritt and Admiral Dewey was to spare every object but the armed defenses and the trenches. Apparently the American losses were extremely small.

Lancaster, Aug. 16.—Mrs. Womble, whose husband was murdered in bed Saturday night by supposed burglars while she was asleep, committed suicide last night.

RUSSELL'S SOLDIERS.

Olve Morehead and Beaufort a Hot Time Saturday Night.

Morehead City and Beaufort were invaded by Russell's soldiers from Fort Macon on last Saturday night.

The invasion was all the word implies, two or three hundred of the colored soldiers going to the towns, where they at once proceeded to get drunk, and make themselves obnoxious.

This was especially true of Morehead, where the party of colored soldiers took a young white boy and made him show them to a negro house of ill-repute.

One of the colored men broke into the residence of a white man, getting in through a window. The white man drew his gun and attempted to fire it, but as the balls had been withdrawn, the gun did not fire but only snapped.

At this attempt to shoot the negro swore, and said he wished he had a gun to show the man how to use it, etc., the negro finally leaving by the window he entered and escaping.

White people were threatened in other parts of the town, but no violence was offered.

It was a night of anxiety to the citizens of both places.—Newbern Journal.

GOOD SENSE.

In accepting gifts for Christianity, there is no endorsement of the way in which the money was made. If we were building a church, we would not refuse to pass the hat along the bench on which the saloon keeper was sitting, and we would count him who said this is the church pandering to the saloon a worse enemy of the church than the liquor seller. Vassar College is none the less useful because its founder had made the bulk of his fortune out of a brewery. Have Oxford and Cambridge been less useful to the Anglo-Saxon people because some of their ancient endowments came from the hands of robber barons? When we take up a collection, are we to question every man who drops in a nickel as to how he made the money? Rather it is the mission of Christianity, by the touch of sweet charity, to make all gifts it can obtain beautiful, holy and blessed; not endorsing the means, but consecrating the money for the world's betterment unto the glory of God.

The foregoing is an extract from an editorial in the Biblical Recorder in reply to an article in the Progressive Farmer. The Recorder's reply is able and sensible. The Farmer talks a great deal about "trust money" and the Recorder dispels those vaporings in a masterly way. Just here we might go a little further along the line of the hated and despised "trust money" and see if the Farmer is entirely sincere.

The Farmer cannot deny that the republican party is the party of the despised and abused gold-bugs and that the gold-bugs are the "money kings" who control and manipulate the trusts. Very well, this being the case the republican campaign fund is bound to be made up of "trust money." Very well, again; and did not the Farmer's party join forces with the trust party and actually assist in electing trust men to office and did not the Farmer endorse the unholy and unrighteous coalition? And is not the Farmer yet unblushingly endorsing the men who by its own treachery and that of other populist leaders have brought shame and disgrace to the white people of North Carolina? And will the Farmer deny that these conditions were made possible only by an alliance of the populists with the trust party?

We would like to know, with these things staring the Progressive Farmer in the face, what right it has to dictate to churches and colleges. It would be in better taste to clean up around its own camp. If trust money is good to elect members of the populist (reform) party to office, why is it not good to run schools and colleges, and why does the Farmer endorse the one and condemn the other?

DEMAND OUT OF PLACE.

It was Mr. Swinson, populist, who was turned out of the enrolling clerkship of the last general assembly by republican and populist members because he would not cram the list of employees, and Mr. Mewborne was put in his place.

And the senate pay-roll, which includes the enrolling department, shows ninety-one regular employees and twenty special employees for 1897. And yet Mr. Mewborne was one of those who howled long and loud about reform, reduction of expenses, and of salaries to conform to the prevailing reduction of farm products.

P. S.—Mr. Mewborne, as superintendent, now draws $2,500 a year for himself, and thinks the demand for the reduction of salaries entirely out of place in a populist meeting.—Morning Post.

Mr. A. L. Swinson, of Wayne, the gentleman referred to in the first paragraph above, is the only populist on record (so far as we have seen) who tried to keep the promises of the party in the matter of salaries. And, unfortunately for the party and himself, he occupied a position where he could be easily choked off, even though the lieutenant governor had to break a lock or two to get into the desk and turn the enrolling clerkship over to a man with a more elastic conscience.

Somebody has found out that kissing has been going on at Pullen Park, Raleigh, and writes over the signature of "Culture" in the Times-Visitor, a letter in which he refers to kissing as "a disgusting and annoying habit," "barbarous and vicious custom," "intolerable nuisance," etc. The writer has, no doubt wisely, withheld his name. "Culture" wants the habit prohibited by municipal law. Oh, cruel, monstrous "Culture"! Would you, because you happen to be sour, deprive the young people of the right of osculation when they think no one is looking? "Culture" should have better manners, anyway, than to watch courting couples in Pullen Park.

About one month ago my child which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Boggs, Stumptown, Gilmer Co., W. Va. For sale by C. E. Holton.

CUBANS IN A FUROR.

Natives Excited Over the Shooting of a Thief by a Sentinel.

Santiago, August 16.—The killing of a Cuban who was shot early yesterday morning by a sentinel, who detected him in the act of stealing commissary supplies has created a furor among Cuban inhabitants of Santiago, who denounce the act as a cold-blooded and wholly unnecessary murder. The sentinel, whose name is Barrias was placed under arrest, but was almost immediately liberated and returned to his post by order of Colonel Hood, who is in charge of supplies. In consequence of the clamor raised by the Cubans, however, General Wood had a consultation with Colonel Hood, as a result of which Barrias was re-arrested and Colonel Hood ordered that he be confined pending an investigation.

Military men unhesitatingly indorse the action of the sentinel, and express the opinion that the example made of the Cuban will be a good one to numerous marauding Cubans and tend to check, if not put a stop altogether, to stealing of commissary supplies.

The transport City of Macon sailed for Montauk Point with parts of the Seventeenth and Twelfth Infantry on board.

The Rev. W. B. Costley, of Stockbridge, Ga., while attending to his pastoral duties at Ellenwood, that state, was attacked by cholera morbus. ## Politics of the Criminal.

A prominent democrat of the county calls attention to a fact, disclosed by an examination of the jail records, which is worthy of note: Since the beginning of Sheriff Henson's term, now nearing the close of the second year, there have been confined in jail 57 male county prisoners and 21 United States prisoners. Of these 62 were republicans, 13 democrats and 3 whose politics was not known. Is not the disclosure of this fact sufficiently suggestive without comment?—Jackson County Cor. Citizen.

Why Allow

Your Child

To Suffer?

Goldsboro, N. C. March 30, '98

Mrs. Joe Person:

Dear Madame, My two small children were completely covered in running sores from impure blood, for which I could find no remedy, until I got a bottle of your Remedy. In a few days they were free of fever, and were well by the time the bottle was empty.
I gave it after meals in sweetened water, and they begged for it. Afterwards my little girl became restless at night, would scream as if in nightmare every little while until after 12 or 1 o'clock. I commenced giving her the Remedy on Thursday night and by Saturday night she was resting quietly. I shall continue to use it for my children.

Yours very truly,

Mrs. M. T. Witherington.

CORBETT DEEPLY AFFECTED.

It is Said That His Father's Blind Had Given Away.

New York, Aug. 16.—James J. Corbett was greatly shocked when he learned of the death of his father. At first he refused to believe it, but when the news was confirmed he broke down and wept like a child. His father, Mc-Vey and White tried to console him, but to no purpose. Corbett said that his father must have become insane or he would not committed such a terrible deed.

Corbett, after a consultation with some friends, had something further to say about the tragedy in San Francisco. He said that his father was each about 52 years old, and that the family relations were always pleasant.
He received letters Saturday informing him that his father's mind had become unbalanced and he further thinks that, while mentally deranged, his father committed the bloody crime.

Corbett said he had telegraphed to San Francisco and that he would leave for the coast this evening if the bodies are held until he can arrive. He says he will send his brother Joseph home anyway. At present he could not say what will be done about his fight with McCoy. He declared that if it was necessary he would forfeit the $2500 he had paid up. He would not fight again, he declared, had it not been for the fact that he was the chief support of the family. He says that what he makes hereafter will go to help support his brothers and sisters. He says, therefore, that it might be necessary for him to fight McCoy in order to obtain money to support the family.

Young Isaacs—"Den you would advise a young man to own his own home?" Old Rosenbaum—"Yes; undt and as many other people's homes as he can."
—Puck.

First Elephant in America.
It is not generally known that a former citizen of Owensboro brought across the ocean the first elephant that was ever in America. The name of the gentleman was Moses Smith, who at one time owned a vast body of land from the mouth of Panther creek up the river, embracing nearly all the present farms in the neighborhood of Sorgho. Mr. Smith was at Paris with his brother and had "more money than he knew what to do with." He told his brother that he intended taking something to America that the people had never seen. "You had better buy an elephant," said the junior brother, and that was what Moses did.

He picked out the biggest animal he could find and paid an enormous price for it. He brought it to New York, where it was a nine days' wonder, but the owner soon found that he had something worse than the proverbial white elephant on his hands. He tried to sell it, but could find no buyer and at last undertook to give it away, in which he was equally unsuccessful. Finally he found a man who agreed to pay him $100 for it, and this individual put it on exhibition. He was so successful that he went into the show business and made a fortune out of Mr. Smith's follow. Colonel Frank McKim of Adair-ville is a grandson of Mr. Smith, who lived to a great age at his home in this county.—Owensboro (Ky.) Inquirer.

careful listener.

The afternoon was delightful and the camp meeting service was a long one.

The good bishop was a keen lover of the week, and after the meeting had closed he strolled off for a smoke. At a little distance he found an abrupt ledge entirely out of the view of the camp grounds, and going down around to the foot of this he lit his cigar and prepared for a quiet half hour.

As it chanced, soon after one of the younger ministers took a walk from the grounds, and finally came to the top of the same ledge, and, looking down, saw the bishop.

For the space of a moment or two he stood with a gleam in his eye, and then, stooping down, he said in a sort of triumphant tone:

"Ah, Father Simmons, I've caught you burning incense to the devil."

The bishop took out his cigar and turned about till he had swung the speaker fully into view, and then added slowly in a deep voice:

"But I didn't know he was so near."

An Example of O'Connell's Wit.

Daniel O'Connell, though brilliant and witty, was daringly vulgar when he set out to attack an opponent. At a Dublin election he started to assault Recorder Shaw, who was a very dignified and handsome man, by declaring him a fellow whose visage would frighten a horse from his oats. The lord mayor, who presided, remarked on these amenities and said it might be supposed such a critic, like Hamlet's father, was endowed with Hyperion curls and the front of Jove himself, instead of a wrinkled brow and a scratch wig. As for himself, he would not be unwilling to compete with the demagogue before a jury of ladies if they could only see him as nature made him without the aid of the hair.

O'Connell strode to the front of the platform, snatched off his wig and pointing to the naked head covered with a stubble of gray hair, cried, "Ladies, I demand your instant judgment!" Of course he had the laugh and the best of the encounter.—San Francisco Wave.

An Unexplained Point.

Peter Lombard points a moral in the English Church Times with this story:

"Mrs. Proudie, the excellent wife of the bishop of Copeminster, down in the midlands, does admirable work by going among the poor people and talking to them out of her own experience and giving them wholesome advice. She did so the other day at Mudbury, near Cope-minster. Next day the rector's daughter at Mudbury said to one of the audience of the previous evening, 'Well, Mrs.
Proudie, what did you think of Mrs.
Proudie's address?' 'Oh, it was very good; but, you see, she only went half way.' 'Whatever do you mean, Mrs.
Toddle?' said the young woman. 'Well, miss, she didn't tell us what she does when Mr. Proudie comes home drunk.
We should like a little advice on that ere point.'"

He Wasn't Left.

Biggs—Quite a rivalry between Tom
and Fred.

Griggs—Yes, I understand they are both seeking the hand of Miss Triffett.

Biggs—They both called at her house
the other evening and at once began the exciting game of trying to outbid each other. Tom had to give it up finally and left Fred in possession.

Griggs—So Fred got the best of it?

Biggs—That's the question. It was a rainy night, and Tom did not take away the poorest umbrella when he left the house.—Boston Transcript.

Carries His Hatchet in His Boot Leg.

In some places men carry bowie knives and guns in their boot legs. One may meet in Fulton fish market in this city a man carrying a hatchet in his boot leg, but the hatchet is for peaceful purposes. It is an implement much used in the market for opening and for nailing up boxes and barrels in which fish are packed, and the boot leg seems to be the handiest place to carry it.—New York Sun.

Mme. de Pompadour encouraged fan painting and also collected fine specimens of the work. Greuze, Watteau and other great artists did not disdain to lend their talents to the art. These pictures were done mostly on vellum or chicken skin.

Court Next Week.

Judge Timberlake will preside at the next term of court here, which opens on next Monday. There are now twenty-three birds in the cage, who will come up before him, each to have his share of justice. They are there for offences ranging from the theft of a coat to the theft of a farming outfit. Already the negroes are singing religious songs, which will gradually increase in number and mournfulness as the time for court draws nearer.

The Man Behind the Space.

"Agricultural Advertising" puts new force in a familiar truth, as follows: "Remember that a four inch space in a paper that will bring you a thousand dollars worth of business costs no more than a four-inch space that brings you two hundred dollars worth of business." It is not the space that does the business; it is the man behind the space, who controls the loading of the projectile that is to be aimed at the public.

The Banner had a good sale today of new tobacco. The prices were the kind that pleased the farmers.

The Farmers sold old and new tobacco at good prices.

ANOTHER NEW ENTERPRISE.

One Which Means Much for Guilford Apple Growers.

It has been the experience of fruit growers in this section that in abundant fruit years a large percentage of inferior apples are left on the ground to rot. In many instances a part of this fruit is hauled to the brandy stills and swapped for a distilled product. The best grades of apples are cut and dried, made into cider and otherwise disposed of, and many late apples are shipped in barrels and put on the market.

Today we are able to convey the intelligence to our readers that a new enterprise is opening up in this city which creates a demand and a market for apples which is not confined to the first grade alone, but brings into ready demand all inferior grades, including the imperfect and knotty fruit.

The de Wolf & Christiansen Co., of New York, are preparing to place an evaporating and drying outfit in the Crown cotton mill building in this city and expect to be ready in a week or ten days to buy apples. Parties having apples for sale and wishing to investigate prices, etc., can see Messrs. de Wolf and Christiansen at Clegg's hotel. Bring along samples of the fruit you wish to sell and they will make you prices.

It is the purpose of these gentlemen to run day and night, working about eighty hands—forty in each shift—provided sufficient quantities of fruit can be secured. Machinery to require that number of hands will be provided. Negotiations with one of our lumber firms are in progress for twenty thousand boxes to be used in the shipment of the fruit when ready for market.

This means much for Guilford county apple growers, as well as giving employment to a number of people in Greensboro. We welcome these gentlemen and hope their stay here will be both pleasant and profitable.

New lot ladies' and children's spring heel laced and button shoes at Thacker & Brockmann's. Excellent values at moderate prices.

ANY ONE building houses would do well to call on Crutchfield Hardware Co. for prices on oils, paints, etc. E. P. Parker, Proprietor, 508 South Elm street.
